Why Make Your Own Family History Web Site?

- Share your data: the more you give the more you get!
- Google-accessible pages that anyone can find
 - Non-genealogists too!
- More control over what you share
- Out-of-state backup for your data & photos
 - File sharing, vanity email

Why Make Your Own Family History Web Site?

- A place to refer/link people to for your data
- Create a community of researchers
- “One Name Study” for brick walls, DNA, and finding “cool” relatives
- “Wick” in new cousins, photos, stories, heirlooms

How Do You Do It?

- This is just how I did it – there are lots of other ways:
 - I use Reunion software on my MacBook Pro Laptop to enter and update my data
 - I pay for a hosting service for my web site and domain name (“rent a server”)
 - I run TNG software on the web site which makes my data available to other genealogists

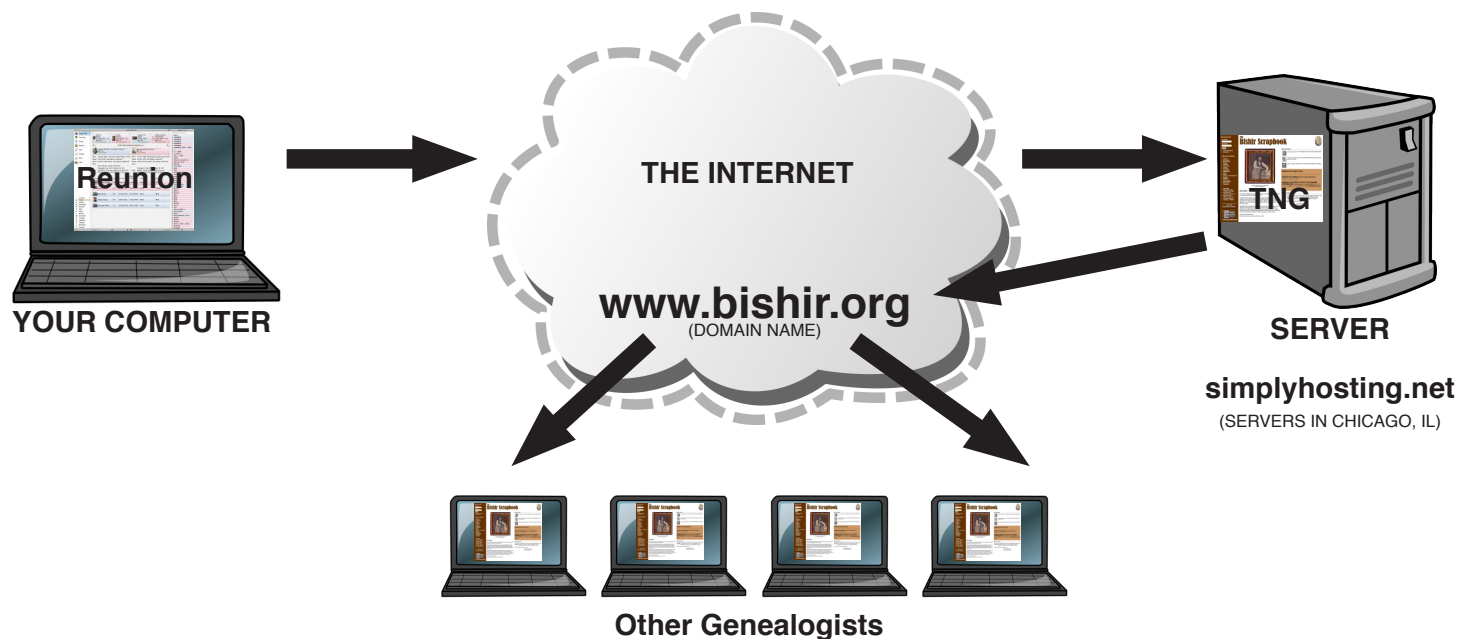

TNG: The Next Generation of Genealogy Site Building

What is it?

- It's software that runs on a web server
- It's like Family Tree Maker, Legacy, Roots Magic, Master Genealogist, or Reunion, but...
 - It has web screens instead of desktop windows
 - A copy of your data is stored on the web server (as well as on your own computer)
- It's like Ancestry.com's public member trees but...
 - On your own web site
 - Managed by you
 - With each page "google-able"

WELCOME!

This site is intended to be a clearinghouse for the benefit of all those who are researching the Bishir/Bisher family.

First the "Bishir" spelling we are using is just a placeholder for a lot of variations on the name. More so than most families, the Bishirs appear in records with a vast array of spellings: Bishir, Bisher, Byshire, Buysher, Bysheare... and the list goes on, although Bishir and Bisher are the most common today.

We started with Christopher Bishir's family who came to Highland County, Ohio from Pennsylvania in the 1830s and have since added lines in northern Ohio, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. We are happy to collect information about as many Bishir/Bishers as possible and put it up here so we can coordinate our research. This is your site - so help us out!

Histories		Bishir - "Christly Bysher" and his Ohio and Indiana Descendents A narrative of the migration of Christopher Bishir Sr. and his family from Pennsylvania to Ohio and Indiana
		Survey of Names similar to Bishir/Bisher in Alsace-Lorraine in 1872

Notes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> With his wife and several small children, Christopher Bishir set out from Westmoreland Co., PA in 1805 for Ohio. They stopped around 1810 in Campbell Co., Kentucky, where their youngest son, Jonathan, was born and then stayed for a time at the mouth of the Crawfish River, near present-day Cincinnati, and Warren Co., Ohio in the early 1820s before moving to Highland Co. in the late 1820s. In 1833, they moved into a wilderness cabin on the east side of the road to Allensburg. Their home on the Bradford Survey was No. 917 and was one mile south of Lynchburg. It has come down in the family (from several directions) that Christopher's ancestry is of Alsace-Lorraine. Also, a family bible indicates that he served in the War of 1812, although no military record has been found to corroborate this. Our list of Christopher's children is somewhat conjectural, however only John and Jeremiah are not specifically mentioned either in a family bible or the Ayers and Klise biographies. Because Jacob and John married sisters (Elizabeth and Angelina Coddington), John's connection to the family seems probable. Jacob sold land to Jeremiah in 1826 and Jeremiah appears in the Warren Co. tax rolls, along with John (and a Frederick Bysher) as late as 1832. (We infer from this that Jeremiah continued to own property in Ohio subsequent to his move to Indiana.) DNA tests have also proved that descendants of Jeremiah and Jonathan share a common ancestor. Based on these considerations, it seems highly likely that all of the Bishirs in the Warren Co. records during the 1820s were closely related, and probably Christopher's children. RESEARCH: We have found the following information on people who may be connected to our Christopher Bishir. (Arranged chronologically): — 1710 — Johan Beyscher, 1710, New York, New York, Wife & 4 children. From Some Residents of Canajoharie, Montgomery Co., N.Y., 1816-1823, by Gail Breitbard, 1985. — 1716 — There is a Hans Jacob Basehore (or Boeshaar) naturalized in New York 31 Jan 1716. He was a cooper (maker or repairer of barrels and casks). Hans Jacob Böshaar is also called Jacob Böshaar (Hunter List Nbr 72) and John Jacob Böshaar (Hunter List 73). Born 1647 in Zweibrücken, Rheinland-Pfalz. In NY, the Palatines were expected to work for the British authorities, producing naval stores (tar and pitch) for the navy in return for their passage to NY. They were also expected to act as a buffer between the French and Natives on the northern frontier and the English colonies to the south and east. He died before 6 Dec 1719 in Kingston, Ulster Co., NY. — 1720 — There is a family of French Huegenots whose earliest ancestor was Jacque Milne La Baisseur. They immigrated to Pennsylvania about 1720. More about them in our database. — 1732, 1733 — From: Joan Benton Copied from a passenger list of immigrants from the Palatinates: Christophel Beser arr U.S. 11 Oct 1732. Palatines imported in ship "Pleasant" from Rotterdam. J. Morris, master. Christian Bausser, 29 Sep 1733 from Palatines. Left on ship "Pink Mary" of Dublin. Boarded in Rotterdam. James Benn, ship's master. — 1735 — Jacob Beshar appears in Pennsylvania Foreign Oaths of Allegiance as follows: Name: Jacob Beshar, Ship: MERCURY

ADDITIONAL RESEARCH

A Frederick Bishir appears on the tax lists for Warren Co., Ohio with the other Bishirs. Frederick also appears in the 1830 census for Warren Co., Ohio with a much younger wife and four daughters. He is between 60 and 70 at that time, so perhaps he was Christopher Sr's younger brother. We can't find him in 1840, so he may have died and his wife remarried. There is also a Frederick Bisher in Lancaster, Pa in the 1810 census.

In a letter to J. Benson Bishir in 1953, Mary Anna (Bishir) Garman, the preeminent Bishir researcher of the mid-20th century, said she had a photo of "Aunt Hannah" and thought she might be another child of Christopher's. There is a Hannah Bisher in the 1836-37 Cincinnati City Directory Page 20: "Bisher, Hannah, Mrs.) Race bw Canal and 12th, Cincinnati, Ohio (Female)"

Also, "Grandma Luce" might be another daughter. This seemed likely since there were 5 female children living with Crisley's family in 1810 and we have only been able to indentify one, Elizabeth. Further research indicates that Margaret Coddington (sister of Elizabeth and Angelina) had a daughter, Sarah (b. 1824, Warren Co. Ohio), who married Solon Luce. She may have been "Grandma Luce".

The Canadian Pyshers - there is a Zachariah Pysher living in Louth, Lincoln, Canada (near Buffalo, NY) who was born in 1791 in the US. Also, a Frederick Pysher, born in Pennsylvania, is listed on his daughter's death certificate there. Could Frederick and Zachariah have moved to Canada in the 1830s? If so, how did Frederick have a daughter who was born in 1835 in Pennsylvania? [\[8\]](#), [\[9\]](#), [\[10\]](#), [\[11\]](#)

BISHIR - Cooper shop in Cynthiana, Kentucky about 1906. Lundy Bishir is standing behind the barrel.

Contributed by Judy Kivi

Lundy would have been about 19 at this time. According to a letter we received many years ago from Lundy's widow, Mary Bishir, Lundy's uncle is also in the photo. She thought his name might be "Bill" but she wasn't sure. Lundy's brother, William, would have been only six years old when this photo was taken and Lundy's great-uncle Bill Bishir would have been in his 60s by this time. The only Bishir uncle Lundy had was Albert Burton Bishir. Burt would have been 34 in 1906. He was a cooper in Kentucky in 1910. Maybe Lundy went to work for him when he was out of school. Based on the strong facial resemblance, Burt is probably the man to the right of Lundy.

	BISHIR, Mary Fite gravesite, Buford Cemetery, Highland Co., Ohio Contributed by Celtic Giraffe Research. Tom from the OGS told me from looking at a map he had that Mary Bishir is buried between a Hopkins and a Coon. I could see no Coon tombstone, and this is the only Hopkins stone I saw in the old section of the cemetery. The stone with the arrow pointing to it is not legible.	Located		Mary Fite (d. 23 Oct 1887)

This site is intended to be a clearinghouse for the benefit of all those who are researching the Bishir/Bisher family.

First the "Bishir" spelling we are using is just a placeholder for a lot of variations on the name. More so than most families, the Bishirs appear in records with a vast array of spellings: Bishir, Bisher, Byshire, Buysheer, Bysheare... and the list goes on, although Bishir and
