We clip from the Evening News, of Oct. 9th, the following, in reference to the Delegation furnished from Berea and her township, Middleburgh:

THE TRAINS.

All the excursion trains came in heavily crowded—some with as many as twenty-five cars, drawn by two engines. The first Orphan Asylum, and a "carpet-bagger" from Ohio, hanging to a tree and Frank Blair driving the mule from under him. Another represented Seymour and Blair astride a mule. Seymour, who rides ahead is guiding the beast and arriving at a fork in the road where a sign indicates to the right, "Salt River," and to the left, "To H—l," is in a quandary which road to take. He inquires of Frank, who replies, "Turn to the right, we'll get to the other place any way." Still another represented a southern man stabbing a negro, with the exclamation from the Richmond Whip, "One vote less!"

Their inscriptions were: "We'll hate for turning stone. This they had in full operation, eliciting much admiration. Following this was another wagon with a large derrick and platform, on which men were engaged in splitting stone and cutting the "eyes" of the grindstones. The representation was complete and carried out in an excellent manner.

MISTAKES.

Some ludicrous mistakes are made by those who, without much knowledge of the subject, attempt to give military commands. Some of us remember a newly-appointed cadet officer, who [it was in the days of Casey] by substituting "by the left flank, of being puzzled is to scratch the antidotes on the heel; where the place of honor is on the left hand, and the seat of intellect is on the stomach; where to take off your hat is an insolent gesture, and to wear white garments is to put yourself in mourning; which has a literature without an alphabet and a language without a grammar.

A little boy, on coming home from church, where he had seen a person work the bellows of an organ, said to his mother, "O mamma, I wish you had been at church to day. Such fun! A man pumped music out of an old cupboard."

Dressing for Church.

Esteemed, and, we trust, very re-
